Dates/forms of training are subject to short-notice changes. Unless otherwise stated, the training courses take place online. Participants with a valid software maintenance contract receive reduced participation fees. See invitation or event overview for prices.

Cancellation of registration is free of charge if we receive it up to 7 days before the start of the event. If we receive a cancellation later or if a participant does not show up, the complete training fee will be due for payment. Substitute participants can be named.

For classroom training in Berlin, the training fee includes the cost of meals and a networking event in the evening. Participants must pay for their travel expenses and hotel accommodation. You will receive further details with the registration confirmation.

No registration is required for free webcasts. You will receive an invitation with an access link by e-mail approximately 1 week before the event.

If you have any questions about registration or our events, please write to schulung@schlothauer.de.
